Students can transfer a maximum of 18 semester hours of community college emergency management courses into the Emergency and Disaster Management degree program. Depending on the community college course, the course will be used to satisfy either a core course or an elective course. If FIP 236 was taken, the course can substitute for EDM 250.

Any additional hours in emergency management above the 18 hour maximum will transfer in as a general elective course. Additional information about the transfer of emergency management courses from a North Carolina community college can be located within the WCU Liberal Studies Equivalencies at NCCC Institutions.
