Student Acknowledgement

By signing this document, I attest that:

The student has met with his/her guidance counselor to determine if high school credit will be given and has been guided in course selection that will assist with this student's educational goals.

Students who wish parents to have access to their college records or talk with college personnel must complete a FERPA form. FERPA forms can be found on WebAdvisor and filled out once a student is officially enrolled in Nash Community College. Parents will not have access to the student's records or be able to discuss the student with college personnel without a FERPA form on file in accordance with Federal Law.

Students who wish to withdraw from a college class must have a conference with their high school counselor and/or principal before officially withdrawing from the college.

*The cost of textbooks and access fees may be the student's responsibility.

ADA Compliance

By signing this document, I understand that if I would like to receive ADA accommodations I must contact the Nash Community College ADA coordinator (ada@nashcc.edu). The Nash Community College ADA coordinator will contact the college instructors with accommodations.
