SPECIAL COLLECTIONS:

DVDs — An expanding collection of DVDs supplements classroom learning as well as recreational use. The emphasis is supporting curricular requests, books with movie tie-ins, and award nominated films.

Early Childhood Collection — Located at the far rear of the library, the Early Childhood Collection is geared to the Early Childhood students and contains children’s books as well as early childhood theory books. All students are welcome to check books out for family members or to re-read their favorite childhood story.

Magazines/Professional Journals — A dynamic collection supports both the curricular and recreational needs of NCC students, staff, and faculty. Full-text journals are also accessible online through NC Live.

Young Adult Collection — Ranging from series like The Hunger Games and Harry Potter to award winners like John Green’s A Fault in Our Stars, young adult novels are written about or targeted to young adults (ages 12-18). Young Adult books appeal to adult readers for their plot, character, and writing quality.

Teaching and Learning Collection — includes titles about a range of educational topics. Topics include persistence, advising, and assessment and are selected to enrich and enhance knowledge of students, instructors, and administrators.

Small Business Center Collection — The Small Business Center collection is targeted to aspiring and current small business owners. With books like How to Write a Business Plan and Patent It Yourself, this section provides information for every step of the entrepreneurs journey.
